Hymn / Psalm 46: God is our Strength and Refuge

Tune: Dambusters March
(Composer Eric Coates. 1886-1957)

1. God is our strength and refuge
our present help in trouble;
and we therefore will not fear
though the earth should change!
Though mountains shake and tremble
though swirling floods are raging
God the Lord of Hosts
is with us ever more.
2. There is a flowing river
within God's holy city;
God is in the midst of her -
she shall not be moved!
God's help is swiftly given,
thrones vanish at His presence -
God the Lord of Hosts
is with us evermore!
3. Come, see the works of our Maker
learn of His deeds all powerful;
wars can cease across the world
when He shatters the spear!
Be still and know your Creator,
uplift Him in the nations -
God the Lord of Hosts
is with us evermore!

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION AND THANKSGIVING

For King and Country And Thanksgiving for The Merchant Navy

Sister Mary Leahy, OAM

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy Kingdom come
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom
The power and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen

CROSSING OF THE BAR POEM

‘CROSSING THE BAR’ IS AN 1889 POEM BY ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON, POET LAUREATE

It is considered that Tennyson wrote it as an elegy (An elegy is a poem of serious reflection, and in English literature usually a lament for the dead): The narrator uses an extended metaphor to compare death with crossing the “sandbar” between the river of life, with its outgoing “flood”, and the ocean that lies beyond death, the “boundless deep” to which we return.

1. Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
2. But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
3. Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
4. For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

THE ODE OF REMEMBRANCE

Mr. Don Kennedy OAM, JP

- Patron & Deputy Coordinator, Merchant Navy Chapter of Forestville RSL
- Veterans Advisor to the Merchant Navy War Memorial Fund Ltd. (MNWMF)

They have no grave but the cruel sea;

No flowers lay at their head;

A rusting hulk is their tombstone, afast on the ocean bed.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning;

We will remember them.

All say: We will remember them

Mr. Don Kennedy OAM, JP: Lest we forget

All say: Lest we forget

THE LAST POST - Bugler, David Young, The Bankstown & Yagoona Brass

(In military tradition, the Last Post is the bugle call that signifies the end of the day's activities.

It is also sounded at military funerals to indicate that the soldier has gone to his final rest and at commemorative services)

ONE MINUTE' S SILENCE - a sign of respect and a time for reflection, concluding with 8 bells. Rung by Mr. Garry Marks, Treasurer & Librarian, The Bankstown & Yagoona Brass (Signaling the conclusion of the one minute's silence, 8 Bells will toll which is recognised on board ships as 'the end of watch' but is also a way of saying, a Sailors or Merchant Mariners own watch is over...a nautical euphemism for "finished". The MNWMF thanks the Bankstown City Band for arranging the 8 Bells).

ROUSE - Bugler, David Young, The Bankstown & Yagoona Brass

(After the one minute's silence and 8 bells, flags are raised from half mast to the masthead as the Rouse is sounded. Today it is associated with the Last Post at all military funerals, and at services of dedication and remembrance).

Flag Attendants - Ms Tamzin & Calisto McKenzie, Members of The Bankstown & Yagoona Brass

Hymn of His Majesty's Armed Forces Eternal Father, Strong to Save

Words: William Whiting, Winchester, England 1860

Tune: 'Melita' John B. Dykes 1861

1. Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!
2. O Christ! Whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at Thy Word,
Who walkest on the foaming deep,
And calm amidst the storm didst sleep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!
3. O Holy Spirit! Who didst brood
Upon the waters dark and rude,
and bid their angry tumult cease,
and give, for wild confusion, peace;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!

The Australian National Anthem

Australians all let us rejoice
For we are young and free;
We've golden soil and wealth for toil;
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history's page, let every stage
Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing
Advance Australia Fair.
